SUNDAY SERVICES / SERVICIOS DE DOMINGO

9:30 a.m.

Servicios en español

10 de Mayo — 9:30 am

Unitario Universalismo: Nutriendo Nuestra Fe

En este “extraordinario” servicio multimedia, haremos un viaje imaginario para descubrir cómo el Unitario Universalismo nutre con “justicia, equidad y compasión a las relaciones humanas” (junto con el resto de nuestros principios) en las culturas radicalmente diferentes a aquellas que hemos experimentado aquí en los Estados Unidos. ¿Puede el Unitario Universalismo dar a luz a niños que se reconocerán entre ellos como parientes, incluso a través de diversos escenarios? Las historias son heroicas, y así es nuestro propio viaje. ¿Como con todas las aventuras, la gran pregunta es: ¿Que aprenderemos de nosotros mismos en el proceso? Ven, ven, cual eres ven, nómada y devoto: ¡exploremos juntos!

Dirige: la Rev. Nancy Palmer Jones; Asociados de Culto: Miembros de nuestros Ministerios en Español.

May 10 — 11:00 am

Unitarian Universalism:
Our Nurturing Faith

In this “extra-ordinary,” multimedia service, we will take an imaginary journey to discover how Unitarian Universalism nurtures “justice, equity, and compassion in human relations” (along with all our other Principles) in cultures radically different from those we experience here in the United States. Can Unitarian Universalism give birth to children who will recognize each other as kin, even across different settings? The stories are heroic, and so is our own journey. As with all adventures, the big question is, What will we learn about ourselves in the process? Come, come, whoever you are, wanderer and worshiper: let’s explore together! We’ll also welcome three new members into our community; please come show them a true FUCSJ welcome.

Worship Leader: the Rev. Nancy Palmer Jones;
Worship Associate: Patricia Ohanian-Coffey.

Articulating Our Unitarian Universalist Faith

By the Rev. Geoff Rimositis

It is funny writing in the past tense for something that hasn't happened yet. I am sitting here at my desk at church wanting to tell you of a song we are going to sing this Sunday that will be history by the time you read this article. We will be singing Harry Belafonte's Turn The World Around. I love this song and really liked it when Harry sang it on the Muppet Show <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=t2TZhrUT-Xs>. Why don't you treat yourself and watch it? It's glorious good fun!

Harry sings with those marvelous Muppets, a song that was inspired by a trip he took to Africa. In Guinea he listened to a storyteller talk about how the fire (sun), water, and mountains help turn the world around. And if people truly know each other, they turn the world around too. Harry sings that We are of the Spirit, Truly of the Spirit, Only can the Spirit turn the world around.

Well... we want to turn the world around at First Unitarian too! We help it turn around with our work for social justice. We help it turn around with our love and compassion for one another. We help turn it around with our voices, ideas, longings, and our deep connections in worship on Sunday mornings. We turn it around with our children and youth and their families by offering a creative environment for their spirits to grow and flourish and knock our socks off with their wisdom and insight.

We want to turn around the Religious Education Program into Lifespan Faith Development. We continue to educate but we also empower, transform and equip all of us to turn around our lives and thus turn the world around. We all need to be able to tap into the full power of our spirits, of our creative center, and be able to stand strong and secure in who we are, what we believe, and what we are called to do with our lives. That is faith development!

Please join us on Sunday, May 17, for a town hall meeting after church when we will have a discussion about next year's church budget and also hear and see (via Power Point) a model for Sundays focused on Celebration, Our Sources, Theology, Fellowship, and Service. Imagine opportunities for spiritual practice, pastoral care circles (e.g. prayer circles), adult classes on Unitarian Universalist topics, and children and youth following their bliss and developmental proclivities with opportunities for choice with workshop offerings. Exciting, huh?

We just want to turn the world around! We want our children to be as excited about attending church as their parents who find inspiration and nurturance in worship and connections with like-minded folks. Come and let us begin a conversation about how our Sunday morning programs can bring forth everyone's joyous and bountiful spirit.

Turn the world around! ●

Lost and Found — Valuable Finds!

Our church Lost and Found has 3 important items belonging to someone out there--car keys, glasses and a leather jacket! There is nothing else in the Lost and Found box because everything collected before these items were found has been taken to the Salvation Army. These things will be taken there as well if they are not claimed fairly soon. Please contact Iris at church 292-3858, ext. 21, or fucs@sanjoseuu.org to claim or turn in lost items.

SUNDAY, JUNE 14

Pride Sunday

The San Jose Pride Parade starts even earlier this year (at 10:00 am) and we're not going to miss it! We will gather in the Victory Parking Lot on Market Street between St. John and Santa Clara Streets starting at 9:00 a., and we will hold an Open-Air All-Are-Invited Worship Service, with singing and Blessing of the Feet, in the parking lot starting at 9:15. Carolyn Bowman and other hosts will be at our church to let folks know where we are, and to keep the labyrinth open for walking and meditation while some of us are marching.

Then, we'll invite all who would like to join us to return to the sanctuary for the 11:00 am service, a rock-the-house Unitarian Universalist revival for all who would like to come back from the parade, and for those who won't be marching.

AUGUST 10 - 15

FUCSJ Senior High Camping Trip

by Colleen Cabot

For UU youth who have or will attend high school in 2009, plus FUCSJ Youth who traveled to Romania in 2007.

The Senior Youth Group will be repeating its favorite trip to the Channel Islands August 10-15. Be sure to sign up for this fabulous trip. Traveling down to Ventura Harbor, we will board a ferry to cross the Santa Barbara Channel to dock in a small bay on Santa Cruz Island, with porpoises surfing our bow waves and maybe seeing whales. Once we carry all our gear into the campground, we'll spend most of the six days snorkeling in the wonderful clear waters and kelp forest in the bay; kayaking around the island and into sea caves; hiking across the island; hanging out in camp (literally, in our nest of hammocks) beading, and getting to know each other. Little wild foxes are our campground hosts! This is an especially good chance for teens who will join the Senior Youth Group in the Fall to meet their peers.

Dates: August 10 to August 15

Contact: Matt Trask, 408-655-1991, matttrask@earthlink.net

Spirit in Practice – Monthly Adult Program Begins in March

Leader: Rev. Geoff Rimositis

The Spirit in Practice workshops help Unitarian Universalists develop regular disciplines, or practices, of the spirit—practices that help them connect with the sacred ground of their being, however they understand it. Spirit in Practice affirms religious diversity while seeking unity in our communal quest for meaning and wholeness. Whether participants follow a path they identify as Humanist, Jewish, Christian, Pagan, Theist, Atheist, Agnostic, Mystic, and/or any of the other paths we follow in our diverse congregation, the Spirit in Practice workshops offer a forum for learning, sharing, and growth that can enrich your faith journeys.

Workshops are suitable for a first-time visitor or a longtime member. You can attend one or more of the workshops.

Our Church Circular • May 6, 2009 / 6 de Mayo 2009

I want to be up to date with you, so here's what we need: birthdays (especially those with zeros), parties of any kind, promotions, college destinations, anything that you diverse groups are doing is interesting to everyone else. "Tell Me Everything" when you see me at church, or e-mail me at dzu@aol.com. Ok, gentle readers, this week:

Now it can be told: a group of very bad members have escaped once more! Who has a new body part?

Those fabulous ladies Carol Greene, Barbara Tonneson, and Torchy Hunter will be holding Open Studios at their studio at Race & Alameda (the largest concentration of artists in this county!) on Mother's Day weekend. They will be sitting, lonely, anxiously, peering down the halls looking for you. Come by a have a drink of cheap wine (artists, remember) and look at their stuff, and at other arty types.

News from Beyond: Jan Theiss-Guffy reports, "We just came back from Sierra Vista, Arizona, a trip we got by being the highest bidder at service auction last year. We stayed with Tina Hemenway's parents, who are just great people. Sierra Vista is near Tucson, and while there we visited the Saguaro National Park. We noticed that the Saguaro cacti are quite anthropomorphous, and several of them seemed to be sending us the peace. Other interesting facts about the Saguaro: they don't bloom until they're about 55 years old - yay for late bloomers! And they live very long lives, sometimes a couple hundred years."

Colleen Cabot sends this: "My sister is coming to visit in June or early July. Cate has long offered workshops in writing personal memoir for adults and for students, which provides a stirring process of reaching within and articulating personal experience.

The Memoir Writing intensives would not be technical writing workshops, nor focused on the art and craft of editing and publishing per se, but on the act of writing itself and relationship with the creative experience.

She is also a Human Design consultant, drawing on science and esoteric traditions like the I Ching, Biogenetics, Chakra System, The Tree of Life and astrology to offer individual sessions and charts. Human Design gives insight into your predisposition through a clear and graphic chart. Some of its premises are part of established science, others are from the esoteric traditions of the Kabbalah, the chakras, the I Ching and astrology.

Are you curious? Send me an email at colleencabot@earthlink.net and I can send you specific descriptions of courses offered and prices. And talk to your friends and send any email addresses of people I should share this info with to me."

But They Are Only Little Kids Department: Connie Bloch's infant son is considering which high school to choose, and Susan Burke-deQuisto's son is said to be graduating. Welcome back, Susan.

While watching the supremely talented Monty Low folk dancing, I decided to ask him what in his background led him to folk dancing of all things. His wife Carol did. Well, he actually met her folk dancing, dropped it for a while, and the trips to Transylvania reawakened his interest.

Quick Sightings: Kelly Burnett is recovering from the implantation of a femoral stent. I have an arterial one, so she and I were discussing how 50 years ago, we'd both be dead. She has new contact numbers: Cell phone: 408-512-7876; Land line: 408-266-7683. Lisa Hettler-Smith said the e.e. cummings poem used at the Easter service was also said at her brother's funeral... According to Liz Owen, who knows these things, the choir currently has 2 Brits who came to one rehearsal and sang well, and she hopes they return... Dan Z congratulated the choir on having every performance better than every rehearsal... Chris & Crystal Lanier are forming a band, maybe including Dan Z, who hasn't had one since the other band members left, saying 20 years together was enough, and one of them was the only person who knew all the words to La Bamba... Michelle Nohavitz was recovering from flu (not that kind)... Jeff Norment adapted music for the Easter service, saying he's been doing that for 30 years, when he's not being the head of Assessment (Testing) at Evergreen Valley College...

Alice Lynch came very close to being a felon!!!! Along with all the members of the notorious hiking group. You knew they'd get caught sooner or later. This time they were busted for walking on a trail that was clearly marked closed. The ticket was $245 EACH!! And the nice ranger lady told them she'd bargained it down to an infraction from a FELONY!!!! Who knows how many times these scofflaws have gotten away with these crimes.

Madeline and Tim Blackwood stopped by San Jose in between trips, and left the following about UU's in Australia. "We attended a Unitarian Fellowship in Christchurch, New Zealand. That day's topic, "Cricket Theology", was obviously challenging. The speaker took expressions and features of the game such as "it's not cricket" and "bit of a sticky wicket" to spin off some theological remarks. A couple of weeks later, at the Melbourne Unitarian church, we were introduced during the service as coming from First Unitarian Church of San Jose. A woman in the congregation responded that she had been a minister at our church. Her name is Gretchen Thomas, and we couldn't wait to talk with her at the coffee hour following the service. We had heard many good things about her and were very pleased to meet her. She had been our RE Minister in the early 90s. She had followed her husband, a native Australian, when his job first took him to Canada and then Australia. We still can't believe that this could happen over 7,000 miles from home."

White Light Department: David & Lucy Proulx. Take care, beloved community. These are hard times. ●

With youth from seven congregations in the South Bay, they have participated in three themed retreats and hosted a fund-raiser for Second Harvest Food Bank with their adult mentors. Add your spirit to the celebration and join us for this important milestone in the life of the church and in these young people’s lives.

Sunday Service Tape Recording Status Report

Hi, I’m John Burk. I am your Sunday Service Tape Duplication Committee Chair and Committee. This may be my last communication with you as tape duplicator. Since January 2009, the service recordings are digital, not tape, and we are entering a new age of delivering the services to you in audio. We still need to work out the details on how to provide those new digital service recordings by way of our website, so please be patient and be aware that I am not in charge of that.

A new committee for sound recordings is forming (and I hope they don’t forget me). My hope is that the tape recordings will still be part of this committee.

I will still provide tape duplication for you for any service in 2008 or before, provided we were able to record that service. I will take requests in writing on Sundays after the 11:00 service.

And we can still use volunteers. Many jobs only take 5 to 15 minutes. We need people to collect or organize the Orders of Service to reuse or recycle them after church. We need someone to set up and take down the Sunday Service Tape Duplication table. Tape duplication itself takes 20-30 minutes once you know how to do it and now that we are only duplicating old services, there won’t be much to do. It’s the perfect job. Right now, we still have tapes to make for Rev. Lilia Cuervo, so she and I could sure use your help. Come talk to me on Sunday, email mus6@aceweb.com or call me at 947-7834. And thank you for the opportunity to serve you. ●

New Member Welcomed

Our new member Sally Cooperrider was welcomed into our congregation on Sunday, April 26. She was introduced by Jan Thiess-Guffey. Sally shared this autobiographical material with us.

I grew up in Seattle, with the American Baptist church that we attended being an important part of our lives. I rebelled against it later, and didn't want anything to do with churches for many years. However, I did miss the sense of belonging to a community, as well as the music, and the encouragement to try to be our best selves.

I moved to Santa Clara County with my parents when I was in high school, and have lived in the area ever since, except for two years at Oberlin College in Ohio, where I got a taste of East Coast culture and East Coast weather.

I was married last year to Kaye-Ailsa Rowan. I have two children, Shawna Nixon, who is a member of this church, and Laura Nixon, who has been living in Ecuador for the past 3-1/2 years but is returning this week.

I work as a family lawyer, emphasizing mediation and collaborative law, and I also do estate planning. I like to play my flute and sing, and I volunteer teaching music in a school classroom. I also like gardening, cooking, being with friends, hiking, and bike riding.

I have been coming to this church sporadically for several years, particularly since I met K'Ailsa, and recently have enjoyed coming fore regularly. I'm happy to be in a church family again, and one that works for me. ●

Reflection

Helping Ourselves -- and the World

By Jean Embree

This reflection was offered by Jean Embree as part of the March 15 Sunday Service, and afterwards, Jean was asked by several people to share it in print.

Want to try an experiment? Suppose first that you're offered a seat on an advisory panel to discuss a new article or feature in a current U. S. magazine, to be entitled something like "the ages of American women."

The cover the designers show you says "American Women—20s, 30s, 40s, 50 and over." What's your reaction? Do you immediately ask, "How can one age of 50 and over constitute a single group? What do women 50, 60, 70, and 80 have any more in common than those 20 to 40 do?"

Here's another possibility: You're asked to help cast a typical American family for a new TV show. You begin with the children—let's say a toddler, a school-age kid, an adolescent. The parents are in their late 30s. The grandparents (maybe just one) are tentatively cast as either hobbling on canes or providing comedy relief or both, looking "old," whatever that means these days. How do I, age 83, fit into either of these pictures?

Now here are a couple of facts: In 1900, the average U.S. citizen died at age 37. Today we've gained about 40 years—that's more than one whole generation—my generation. How does this "new old" generation fit into the current U.S. culture? We are ignored almost completely in the society, which tends to divide itself into young, middle-aged, and old. We are quite literally off the charts of the financial planners, ignored by the government, by-passed by the media almost completely, not even considered by employers. Why would a person over 70 want to have a job?

I'll tell you why. I graduated from U.C.

Berkeley, then married and stayed home 16 years to raise 4 children, then ended up divorced in my forties when I went back to college for a teaching degree. The story of my life from ages 18 to 48 is told by Betty Friedan in "The Feminine Mystique." But for my story in what I think of as the second half of my life, I refer you to her later book, "The Fountain of Age," in which she analyzes the situation I've just outlined and notes what those in my nearly ignored generation need to do about it. We need to re-invent our own lives. Most of us don't have great retirement pensions, but we do still have brains and energy, which the culture does not encourage us to use. Many of us have faithful family members and friends, but even those tend to ask, "When are you going to sit back and relax?" Deep down we wonder whether we really are ready for the rocking chair, but we still hear a voice that says "Why?" We certainly can't live on Social Security, and we'd rather not depend on our younger family members—many of whom are nearing retirement themselves. We want to contribute!

So we're a little miffed at the general cultural atmosphere that ignores what we may still be able to give to society, but we need to realize that we need to avoid being our own worst enemies. Like every disadvantaged minority in U.S. culture, we need to avoid being prejudiced against ourselves. We need to focus on what we CAN do, and then DO it, however many eyebrows are raised around us, and meanwhile try to remind the culture that the year is 2009, not 1909, and the world needs all the help it can get. Maybe we've been granted the extra 40 years for a reason. Yes, we—and the culture—can change. ●

"Holy Mackerel!" The Statue of Thomas Starr King is to be replaced with one of Ronald Reagan in the Capitol Rotunda!

In the National Statuary Hall Collection in the Capitol Complex in Washington, D.C., there are statues representing every state. Representing California are Father Junipero Serra and Unitarian minister Thomas Starr King. King was once called "the orator who saved the nation." His statue is getting replaced by the gipper in June! Abraham Lincoln credited Thomas Starr King with his impassioned pro-union, patriotic fiery speeches as the man who brought in and kept California in the union during the Civil War. ## May 19th Special Election-- Ballot Measure Positions

Absentee ballots were mailed out recently; if you don't vote absentee, we urge you to go to the polls on May 19. This is an important election; it could significantly affect California's future. Please vote! At the last PACT board meeting, they voted to oppose ballot measures 1D and 1E, though many teachers will be supporting them all to avoid deeper school cuts. PICO Calif has done the same. The San Jose Mercury News opposes 1D but supports the rest. Cal Teacher's Association and the Chamber of Commerce are the only groups recommending YES on all measures. UULM urges NO on all measures. For a table of UULM and other groups' recommendations on all of the ballot measures, go to: http://www.uulmcaaction.org/documents/legislation/an\_may\_2009\_ballot\_measures.pdf

After a year and a half of debate over filtering pornography out of San Jose public library computers, the City Council rejected spending money on the technology. ## A Small Candle

By Michael Payne-Alex

For the past eleven years I have been leading groups of teenagers from Santa Teresa High School, where I teach, to participate in a phenomenal leadership and communication camp in the Santa Cruz Mountains. It started as Camp Anytown and then changed to Camp Everytown, but under both names the experience has been transformative for more than five hundred teens and dozen of teachers and police officers. A colleague of mine has written and published a small book entitled A Small Candle about the impact of camp on our lives and the lives of our students. The fact that the book's title resonates so strongly with our own chalice is only the tip of the iceberg of connections that this book has to our faith. If you would like to see one way that I have been living my Unitarian Universalist values over the last eleven years, you can purchase or borrow a copy of this wonderful little book. See me in Hattie Porter Hall after church or send me a message at michaelpaynealex@yahoo.com. All profits from the $10 dollar cost will be donated to help fund future camps for Santa Teresa High. Thank you for your consideration.
