

Hymnal #586 The Idea of Democracy

As labor is the common burden of our race, so the effort of some to shift their share of the burden onto the shoulders of others is the great, durable curse of the race.

As I would not be a slave, so I would not be a master.

This expresses my idea of democracy. Whatever differs from this, to the extent of the difference, is no democracy.

Our reliance is in our love for liberty; our defense is in the spirit which prizes liberty as the heritage of all people in all lands everywhere.

Destroy this spirit, and we have planted the seeds of despotism at our own doors.

Those who deny freedom to others deserve it not for themselves, and cannot long retain it.

Why should there not be a patient confidence in the ultimate justice of the people? Is there any better or equal hope in the world?

Let us have faith that right makes might, and in that faith, let us, to the end, dare to do our duty as we understand it.

After the Election

No matter how far you have gone on the wrong road, turn back.
- Turkish proverb

What you do is of little significance; but it is very important that you do it.
- Mohandas K. Gandhi

I believe that unarmed truth and unconditional love will have the final word in reality. That is why right, temporarily defeated, is stronger than evil triumphant.
- Martin Luther King Jr., as he accepted the Nobel Peace Prize

Preliminaries	Remind members that being Unitarian and being a Democrat are not synonymous. We must have room in this faith for all.	Discussion	This is a time to respond briefly to something another person said or to relate additional thoughts that may have occurred as others shared
Chalice Lighting - George E. Odell	We need one another when we mourn and would be comforted. We need one another when we are in trouble and afraid. We need one another when we are in despair, in temptation, and need to be recalled to our best selves. We need one another when we would accomplish some great purpose, and cannot do it alone. We need one another in the hour of success, when we look for someone to share our triumphs. We need one another in the hour of defeat, when with encouragement we might endure, and stand again. We need one another when we come to die, and would have gentle hands prepare us for the journey. All our lives we are in need, and others are in need of us.	Singing Hymnal #155	I'm on my way to the freedom land. I'm on my way to the freedom land. I'm on my way to the freedom land I'm on my way, great God, I'm on my way.
Check-in	Please take minute or two to share briefly what's been on your mind lately.		I asked my sister, come and go with me. ( repeat 3 times ) I'm on my way, great God, I'm on my way.
Reading - Abraham Lincoln (hymnal #586)	(read round the circle the reading on the back cover)	Closing / Extinguishing the Chalice - Jonalu Johnstone	I asked my brother, come and go with me. ( repeat 3 times ) I'm on my way, great God, I'm on my way.
Sitting in Silence			If they say no, I'll go anyhow. ( repeat 3 times ) I'm on my way, great God, I'm on my way.
Sharing/ Deep Listening	Please keep your sharing to your personal feelings and experiences.		I'm on my way, and I won't turn back. ( repeat 3 times ) I'm on my way, great God, I'm on my way.
			Join hands or link arms as you read the closing words together:
			I shall take my voice wherever there are those who want to hear the melody of freedom or the words that might inspire hope and courage in the face of despair and fear. My weapons are peaceful, for it is only by peace that peace can be attained. The song of freedom must prevail
